INTRODUCTION

Indonesia is experiencing a crisis of patriotism. As written in Kompasiana on 3 December 2018, the current of globalization undermines patriotism, especially cultural aspects. Modern society has begun to forget the original culture of Indonesia, which is replaced by the flow of advanced technology.

The implementation of character education of patriotism is considered necessary to preserve the nation's culture. One of them is by taking folklore stories that can be taken from the values of patriotism characters. One of the folklore that can be taken is the Legend of Reog Ponorogo.

Reog Ponorogo legend is a folklore from Ponorogo Regency, East Java. This legend tells of the journey of King Klono Sewandono to marry the Royal Princess of Kediri. This story tells the story of a choice between love for humans or love for its people. In the end, Prabu Klono Sewandono chose his people and country.

Reog Ponorogo's story is usually performed in a colossal dance. This colossal dance is performed during the full moon or during the Grebeg Suro festival in Ponorogo Regency. In addition to the performance of colossal dance, Wayang Golek Reog Ponorogo Art becomes one of the media that tells the origins of Reog Ponorogo.

Picture 1. Prabu Klono Sewandono

Narrated in Gunawan and Sulistyoningrum (2013), Prabu Klono Sewandono was a student of Ki Ageng Lawu. He became Ki Ageng Lawu's best student who was then given Cambuk Samandiman weapon as a gift. This whip could not be used to destroy civilization. Prabu Klono Sewandono then left and established the Kingdom of Bantarangin.

Prabu Klono Sewandono ruled the kingdom wisely. He was respected by his people. Under the reign of Prabu Klono Sewandono, the Kingdom of Bantarangin developed rapidly.

One day, Prabu Klono Sewandono fell in love with Princess Songgolangit. He enlisted Bujang Ganong's trainer to get Princess Songgolangit to marry. Patih Pujang Ganong gave an idea of art that have not yet existed in the world in accordance with Princess Songgolangit's request. He proposed the art of Barongan which is now known as Reog Ponorogo. This art was obtained when King Klono Sewandono was intercepted by Singo Barong in the Lodaya Forest on his way to Kediri. The fight between Prabu Klono Sewandono and Singo Barong caused the Prabu's face to be damaged. In the end, Prabu Klono Sewandono won the fight with Singo Barong with Cambuk Samandiman.

Arriving in the Kingdom of Kediri, Princess Songgolangit had run away because she did not want to be married to King Klono Sewandono. She was a princess of Kedi who could not give offspring to the kingdom. Feeling that she did not deserve for the marriage, she fled and hid in the Selomangleng Cave.

Being disappointed of not being able to propose to Princess Songgolangit, Prabu Klono Sewandono was disappointed and thrashed Cambuk Samandiman in the Kediri Royal Territory. Some civilizations were destroyed and turned into the Brantas River. He forgot Ki Ageng Lawu's message that he must not damage civilization.

Ki Ageng Lawu came, he reminded King Klono Sewandono in using Cambuk Samandiman. Because it was broken, Ki Ageng Lawu gave a choice to Prabu Klono Sewandono. The first choice was that Prabu Klono Sewandono should not marry and the Kingdom of Bantarangin would prevail, and the second choice was that Prabu Klono Sewandono married and the Kingdom of Bantarangin suffered a setback.
